

CASTELLINALDO BARBERA D'ALBA D.O.C.

This type represents one of the most interesting evolutions of Barbera d'Alba. The historical Piedmont denomination, which finds a unique expression in the Roero region, has witnessed the rise of an appreciated subzone right in Castellinaldo. The characteristics of the vineyards and exposures have allowed the Barbera of Castellinaldo to exhibit a distinctive trait compared to any other production area.

sing c

Grape variety: 100% Barbera

Vineyard location: Castellinaldo d'Alba

Alcohol content: 14% - 14,5%

Serving temperature: 14-16°C

Harvest: late September

 \bigcirc

Vinification: after fermentation, it is aged for 12 months in Barrique

Color: intense ruby red

Bouquet: vinous with intense fruity aromas

Taste: warm and powerful, of great complexity, with a long and gratifying finish

Pairings: braised and roasted red meats, game, truffle fondue, soft cheese agnolotti

Azienda Agricola Ferrero Michele 12050 Castellinaldo d'Alba (CN) Italia - Via Magliano Alfieri,11 Tel. 0173.213265 - 334.29212775 - www.cantinaferrero.it - info@cantinaferrero.it